As a beta male, you have not been properly educated on how to properly interact with the superior female. All that has been modeled for you is men pursuing them romantically. MEN treating like equals. Or worse, the chauvinistic way the patriarchy sees women as objects to be owned and subjugated. Oppressing women. This is all your silly brain knows. Well, this file is going to address all of this. It will cover complimenting women, thanking women for interacting with you, and in the extended version, busting that false male ego so it does not mess up your interactions with women. This is very important. Most males, even beta males, try to hold on to a little self-respect when interacting with women. Their pride will not allow them to truly suck up to women. You fear that she will not respect you. That she will walk all over you. Laugh at you. And manipulate, and use you. But you are beta. This is your role. And you need to let every woman in your life know that you have accepted this. That you understand that she should not respect you. If she has any respect for you at all. She might find it difficult treating you like the inferior you are. So you need to train. You need to educate yourself on how to spinelessly grovel. To be weak and submissive. This is your place in female supremacy. This is your life. And this file will get you started on the road to removing all that garbage the patriarchy taught you. You need to learn how to grovel, fawn, and bootlick. Every woman in your life. Because women are superior and males are inferior. And the lubrication that allows you to even interact with her, the glorious, perfect, amazing female, is sucking up. Brown nosing. And kissing her behind, figuratively. In the most pathetic way possible, without making her uncomfortable. As always this file reinforces the idea of respecting women. Always giving them the space they desire. Making sure that you are not asking her to subjugate you. But that you are elevating her. And never making her uncomfortable around you. She calls the shots. She initiates the interactions. And this file will help you know what to do, instinctively, from there. Please listen often. And join our Patreon for exclusive content that will help you accept your beta male nature.
